

EXPRESSIONS IN WORSHIP

AS I WORSHIPPED INTO THE EARLY HOURS HE BEGAN TO FOCUS
MY HEART ON HIS LOVE.....

GOD IS PURE LOVE! ... His love is not subject to any flaws.

His Love is embarrassingly extravagant. At times the way I realise He loves me makes me feel ashamed about my doubts and fears! Thinking about his goodness towards me overwhelms my mind. My love for Him will never match His love for me!

My soul cannot fully fathom neither can it stand, rather it buckles under the revelations of His love. His Love is too much for my soul to ever process and contain. All I can handle are fleeting measures of His Love poured out in 'bite-sized' realizations which wash over me!

His grace towards my past sins causes me such deep painful gratitude that I cannot speak it out and can only express it with deep wailing, crying and tears. When I think that despite my sin He chooses to dwell in me, it causes me to crumble and covers me with feelings of awe and wonder at how this miracle happens.....
